

K-LOVE is a central part of my families lives. We listen to the music, and are encouraged by the message they offer. We feel that if K-LOVE were not offered in our area that our community would be negatively affected.

Christian Radio is a vital portion of my family, and we depend on it for several areas of our daily lives.

K-LOVE in particular gives us a sense of a much larger community.